

T.R. MARRITT, PGA

July 12, 2009

The La Costa Golf Academy (LCGA) is excited to be involved with the Vancouver Golf Tour (VGT) and its mission of “preparing tomorrow’s champions”. Director of Instruction of LCGA, T.R. Marritt PGA, is passionate about competitive golf and is a dedicated leader in the development of professional golfers. The LCGA is a proud host to many stellar professionals including Danny Lee, In-Kyung Kim, Jeff Gove, Alex Aragon, David Bradshaw, as well as a team of developing players.

We know the chance to receive expert coaching while playing and practicing with other great players will help a qualified member of the VGT get closer to his dream of winning on the PGA Tour. Therefore, the LCGA is offering one no charge invitation to practice, play, and train with the Director of Instruction at the world renowned La Costa Resort and Spa in Carlsbad, California. This $12,000 valued package includes personal coaching, practice facility, and two championship golf courses. The coaching program will commence in October 2009 and run through March 2010.

Please submit your golf resume and application letter to T.R. for consideration for this valuable opportunity by August 30th 2009.

Have a great season.
